He seeks God's will above his own. Even in his sin, David is sensitive to Nathan's confrontation (2 Sam 12). It is clear that David is a special character in Scripture. So, even though the phrase "a man after God's own heart" should be viewed as a phrase relating to choice (not character), the choice does relate to character.

1. Never Let a Man Decide What You Get in Love: If you have an idea of how you want love to look, do not give a man the power to not give it to you. You get to decide what you want and let him know in simple and direct ways. Communicate with him not about what you want him to do or change but rather with what you do and don't want for yourself. The minute a man feels you're trying to change ...
