Financial Peace Revisited is an updated version of his 1999 book Financial Peace. It offers up 37 simple truths about personal finance he calls "peace puppies" These simple truths are what many would call common sense but few would actually follow. We can't go through each one individually, but here are four main takeaways:

Book Summary: Financial Peace Revisited

Financial Peace of Mind is Worth the Journey. Financial peace of mind is not as elusive as most people believe it is. I truly believe most anybody can achieve it. However, it takes time and effort to bring financial freedom into your life, and most people are just not willing to make the sacrifice.
