Surviving in federal prison can be scary, but if you respect your fellow inmates and stay aware of your surroundings, your time inside will be a lot smoother. It might be tempting to join a prison gang for protection, but you should avoid this, since gangs will easily rope you into committing crimes, which will lead to a longer sentence if you're caught.

Book 2 will easily get a 5 star review from me. The books are getting better as they go, which would be expected assuming these are the authors first attempts at writing full length novels on a budget. Be advised that, especially in book 2, there are quite a few "F" bombs dropped, but they don't seem gratuitous.
