The Ancient Magus' Bride, Vol. 1 was a nice start. I liked it, but wasn't overly wow'd. I do plan to continue the series and see where things go. The thing that got to me was the young girl in the situation she is in.

I really enjoyed this volume in the Ancient Magus Bride series a lot. This starts a new story arc for the series with Chise starting to attend mage school. In this volume we see the conversations that led up to Chise's choice to attend school, her first days at school, and meet a ton of new characters (which I may struggle to remember because they were introduced very rapidly).

Ancient Magus' Bride is more of a fantasy adventure series than a romance manga, IMO. In volume 12 we get a ton of worldbuilding and more information on several of the students, making them feel more alive. Kore Yamasaki is building an amazing world with beautiful art, I can't wait for the next volume!

Once again, The Ancient Magus' Bride comes through with a strong and thoughtful volume. Chise is seeking a cure for the dragon's curse and that has led to her negotiating with Cartaphilius. He decides to bring up memories of her childhood and we see what young Chise had to experience. There is also Cartaphilius' story and his centuries of torment.

The Ancient Magus' Bride has a lovely balance of fae, magic and supernaturals. The artwork continues to be spectacular. In Volume 5, we learn how Silky came to take care of Elias' home. I loved learning about Silky's past and what she is. We also get to go to the Fairy Kingdom, because something is wrong with Chise.

The Ancient Magus' Bride, Vol. 5 by Kore Yamazaki

The currently latest tankobon of Ancient Magus' Bride wraps one part of the story and hints the beginning of a new arc. Because the story continues, it doesn't tie all the loose threads but gives a conclusion to Chise's problem with the dragon's curse. Majority of the book nine is dedicated to Chise and Cartaphilus/Joseph and their fight.

The Ancient Magus' Bride, Vol. 9 by Kore Yamazaki

The Ancient Magus Bride Vol. 6 focuses more on character development than anything else. This one was a bit slower than the others. We see Alice return and Chise has made a friendship with her. We see Elias have a reaction to Chise having friends.

The Ancient Magus' Bride - Wikipedia

This volume of The Ancient Magus' Bride continues the series' high quality. Elias finds himself a bit perturbed; Chise is starting to make friends, a situation that he finds discomfoting. She does what amounts to a girls' day out with Alice, the alchemist Renfred's apprentice. She learns Alice's story, which is an unsettling but hopeful one.
